

Top Romantic Destinations for any Budget

- Insider Secrets on the best romantic destinations
- Sort through the confusion and plan your dream honeymoon
- Pro-tips to save money on whatever destination you choose

You have spent endless hours researching online and reading tons of reviews for that perfect location for your Romantic Getaway. Your best friend recommends a resort where she spent her last Spring Break that allowed them to sleep 6 in a double room. You've also been looking at that über expensive resort your boss escapes to at least once a year. It's luxury all the way but it has a health/wellness theme so you're not sure if your other half will be happy with all the "healthy meals" and the lack of TV in the room, not to mention the hefty price tag. You're confused, lost and wondering if there is someone out there that can give you the "real deal". To answer your question, yes there is and that is why I do what I do.

To get you started I've put together a list of great destinations for your honeymoon or anniversary celebration based on several budgets levels. After you read this list you will see that there is not one bad option, you just have to choose based on your budget and the experiences you are looking for in a Romantic Destination.

Standard Budget (Less than $5,000)

Riviera Maya/Cancun, MX

Flights are very affordable which is great because flights tend to be the biggest part of your travel budget nowadays. The quality of service and food is wonderful and there is a wide selection of resorts that fit everyone's personality. From the over the top private plunge pools to luxury small boutique resorts that offer personalized

service. Puerto Rico

Again, the flights are affordable and although the island DOES NOT offer any true all-inclusive resorts there is no need for one here. The island has amazing nightlife, plenty of activities (the longest zipline in the world), amazing diving and even surf lessons. From small inns to 5 star resorts, there is a wide range of properties to suit everyone.

Premium Budget ($5,000-$10,000)

St. Lucia

Considered the most romantic island in the Caribbean, St. Lucia is in a class of its own. Between the Pitons, volcanoes, black sand beaches, excursions and breathtaking views, you can be assured your experience will be exotic and super romantic. There is something for everyone in the islands and no one will be bored.

Bali, Indonesia

The land of meditation and yoga, if you saw the movie or read the book "Eat, Pray Love" then you have an idea of the beauty found in Bali. What you may not realize is how affordable it is. Airfare to Bali will take a pretty big bite out of your budget but once you are there, accommodations, food and attractions are quite low. You can have a once in a lifetime experience at a surprisingly low budget.

Ultra Luxury Budget (over $10,000)

Maldives

Located on the Indian Ocean, the Maldives are a group of idyllic islands that are very popular with VIPs and celebrities due to the breathtaking landscape and privacy. The Maldives have over 2/3 of the world's over-water bungalows making this an ideal location if you want an over-water bungalow and don't want to do Tahiti.

Seychelles

A very popular location with royalty (Prince William and Kate & Princess Madelaine and husband Christ O'Neill both honeymooned there), the Seychelles Islands are unique in that half of the islands have formed on granite rock. There are huge granite boulders on the beaches making them a location unlike any other in the world.

A romantic beach scene with a large glowing heart in the sky. The heart is composed of two overlapping, glowing blue hearts. The background is a clear blue sky with a few wispy clouds. Below the sky is a vibrant turquoise ocean with white waves crashing onto a sandy beach. The overall mood is romantic and serene.

Hopefully this list has given you some idea of the many options you have when it comes to planning your next Romantic vacation. Whether it is your honeymoon or that special anniversary celebration, you deserve VIP service at a destination that checks off all of your must haves. And, I hope I've convinced you that no matter what your budget is, you can have a once in a lifetime, luxury romantic getaway. All it takes is a little time spent with an expert who will get to know you and turn your romantic dreams into reality.
